

Webinar Outline
An Evaluation of Ohio's State Targeted Response to the Opioid Crisis: Implications for Public Health Practice

60 minutes

September 25, 2024

Based on an article: A Mixed Methods Evaluation of State Targeted Response to the Opioid Crisis in Ohio, Ohio Journal of Public Health, Volume 5, No.2

Presenters: R. Thomas Sherba, Julia Dionne, and Jessica V. Linley (OMHAS)

Moderated by Karen Towne (University of Mount Union)

Time	Agenda	Person(s) Responsible
Onboarding	Post article link in Chat Ariel will advance slides for whole presentation	Ariel Hieronimus
2 min	Welcome and Intro to Webinar Series	Angela DeJulius, OPHA
1 min	Orientation to webinar mechanism - Brief agenda overview - Audience mics muted - Questions go into chat - Q&A at the end via chat/moderator	Karen Towne, Moderator
2 min	Intro of speakers	Karen Towne
40 – 45 min	Presentation (w/objectives) • Background & Introduction (~7 minutes) (Tom) • Methods (~10 minutes) (Tom) • Sample Demographics (~1 minute) (Jessica) • Results (~15 minutes) (Jessica) • Study Limitations (~3 minutes) (Julia) • Implications (~6 minutes) (Julia) • Key Takeaways (~3 minutes) (Julia)	Tom Sherba, OMHAS Jessica Linley, OMHAS Julia Dionne, OMHAS
12-14 min	Q&A, Discussion	Karen Towne
2 min	Closing/Thanks	Kelly Morris, OPHA